PROCLAMATION

Domestic Violence Awareness Month

WHEREAS, the crime of domestic violence violates an individual's privacy and dignity, security and humanity, due to systematic use of physical, emotional, sexual, psychological and economic control and/or abuse; and

WHEREAS, domestic and sexual violence crosses all social groups; but people who are women, transgender, LGBTQ, poor or working class, Native, of color, immigrant, non-English speaking, disabled, young, elderly or otherwise marginalized not only shoulder the burdens of oppression but also experience high rates of domestic violence; and

WHEREAS, the impact of domestic violence is wide ranging, directly affecting the health and wellness of individuals and society as a whole, here in this community, throughout the United States and the world; and

WHEREAS, preventing interpersonal violence is not only possible but is our collective responsibility, and prevention requires significant changes to our social norms regarding gender roles, strength, sexuality, relationships, and the normalization of violence; and

WHEREAS, a coalition of organizations has emerged to directly confront this crisis, Advocates and those involved with shelters and hotline services, law enforcement officials, health care providers, the clergy and other concerned individuals are helping in the efforts to end domestic violence; and

NOW THEREFORE, in recognition of the important work done by My Sisters' Place, Siletz Tribal Violence Against Women Act Program, Lincoln County District Attorney and the Lincoln County Domestic Violence Council, I, Mayor Billie Jo Smith do hereby proclaim the month of OCTOBER, 2018 as

I urge all citizens to work with these invaluable community agencies to help alleviate this problem in our community.

Billie Jo Smith, Mayor
